

HOT GOSS

■ Has Cupid been let loose in the Laan? It seems so – another 7de Laan actress is engaged! HILDEGARDT WHITES (Bonita) was ecstatic when her Polish boyfriend, KUBA SILKIEWICZ, asked her to marry him at her favourite eatery in Brooklyn, Pretoria. Kuba booked the entire restaurant for the occasion and went all out to ensure her favourite things were there. The tablecloths were green; pink roses adorned the room; they feasted on Cape Malay curry and the restaurant played their favourite songs.

Turn to page 16 for more on the engagement party of Angelique Gerber (Clara).

■ He may not be winning any cooking contests soon but JACK PAROW is impressive when he's braaiing – so much so he's launching a braai sauce. "They've started to bottle the sauce," he said when we bumped into him at the recent MK Awards at the Cape Town International Convention Centre. "It should be out in stores at the end of March. I'm very excited about it." The rapper revealed he's also working on material for a new album.

■ Top Billing fans will see less of LYNDALL JARVIS in the coming months. "I'm not presenting as much because I've gone back to school," the bubbly blonde told us at the BMW International Polo Series held at the Val de Vie wine estate in Paarl. "I'm juggling a lot – modelling and studying – but I love being busy." Lyndall didn't want to talk about her studies but her friend, model-surfer Roxy Louw, mentioned Lyndall will soon add businesswoman to her CV.
