

MAP KEY

Between the areas of Paarl, Franschhoek and Stellenbosch, there are plenty of unique attractions to explore from internationally acclaimed wine farms to historical monuments and beautiful hiking trails.

- |                                                                                   |                                                                                   |                                                                                   |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  |  |  |
| WINE FARM                                                                         | CYCLING TRAILS                                                                    | BEER BREWERY                                                                      |
|  |  |  |
| RESTAURANT                                                                        | MARKET                                                                            | POLO GROUNDS                                                                      |
|  |  |  |
| ACCOMMODATION                                                                     | HIKING TRAILS                                                                     | MONUMENT                                                                          |

